

Warner Creek Correctional Facility

Lakeview, Oregon is nestled into the heart of Lake County providing outdoor wonder, small town living, and work opportunities to the 2,300 residence who call it home.

Whether it's hiking, hunting, skiing, snowmobiling, or even paragliding – Lakeview does not disappoint. This piece of heaven, once called “The Hang-Gliding Capitol of the West”, sits surrounded by nature begging to be explored.

Work and live in town- boasting businesses, a sawmill, grocery stores, the district hospital, and Warner Creek Correctional Facility. This small town feels like family and the community is eager to come together to support one another.

Warner Creek Correctional Facility is a minimum-security men's prison providing careers and opportunity for advancement to the community of Lakeview. Competitive wages, generous benefits, and a public retirement plan makes it an exciting career while you and your family enjoy Lake County.

Visit today and see for yourself why we love it here!

